

ALL OVER OKLAHOMA and Neighboring States

Oklahoma

WAGONER. Sept. 25.—This city is winning a place in the hearts of cotton growers for miles around on account of the high prices paid for that staple, some farmers offering their loads 20 miles to this market.

OKLAHOMA CITY. Sept. 25.—A shooter who with his car in the parade is planned by the chamber of commerce for Friday, September 28, when the towns of Enid, Tulsa, Muskogee, McAlester, Lawton, Jenks, Broken Arrow, Tulsa and Glenpool will be visited. It is planned to have the Oklahoma band lead the procession.

ARDMORE. Sept. 25.—John Fleita, representative gubernatorial candidate, is active in the campaign for the state election on Sept. 29. He will be met at Waurika on the 28th by a delegation of Ardmore residents who are coming to this city via Binger, Wilkes and Idabel, where he will speak also.

KINGMAN. Sept. 25.—Sheriff Mike has just gone to get a Dodge car stolen a short time ago from Karen house, where Frank King was attending the Free Methodist camp meeting.

MIAMI. Sept. 25.—Mrs. Mabel Richards, 23 years old and attractive-looking, was captured in Fort Worth, Texas, as a fugitive from the Ottawa county jail, where she had been held since her escape three nights ago, to freedom. She was given a $1000.00 tip by the state penitentiary, where she is to serve two years for robbery.

HOLDENVILLE. Sept. 25.—The chamber of commerce, which has been granted the use of the second floor of the city hall, has arranged a permanent agriculture product display. Photographs of Hughes county purebred Herefords are hung on the walls and the hall will be used as a meeting place for the farmers and their families. There will be a special kept for the farm uses of farmers and traders, who can obtain anything that they have for sale or trade, and appropriate literature pertaining to the needs of farmers and stock growers will be placed in the hall for distribution.

HEINREYTTA. Sept. 25.—In response to the activities of the chamber of commerce to induce the farmers to grow peanuts and to give cotton attention, merchants and professionals men are offering their services in a personal visit to the farmers. The cotton crop, it is said, will not be sown to give up cotton altogether, but he will be shown with a peanut market and poultry shipped to market directly from the farms, will be assured of a ready market and cash from these two sources while taking care of the cotton crop.

Kansas

INDEPENDENCE. Kan., Sept. 25.—Mrs. Homer Green, 27 years old, wife of a local physician, died yesterday at the hospital. She had been ill for the past week. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Carter of this city and had lived here 20 years. A son and daughter survive.

CHANUTE. Kan., Sept. 25.—Ralph Endisley, farmer near here, whose eight leg of the knee was pierced by a bullet when he was shot in the leg, has been amputated in the Wilson county hospital. On Wednesday the other day, when it was discovered that the bullet had not been pierced and blood settled in the tissues of the calf until decomposition had set in.

MODERNA. Kan., Sept. 25.—That the water well on the Matt Mayes farm near here, which claimed three victims this week, has been found to be the cause of a lantern previous to the descent of the unfortunate man, has been established. The lantern continued to burn and the well was considered to be free and safe.

PITTSBURG. Kan., Sept. 25.—Mrs. Lula Bush, wife of John N. Bush, former treasurer of Crawford county, died here this week. She was 77 years old and had lived in this vicinity since 1887.

AUGUSTA. Kan., Sept. 25.—This city has voted to spend $2,000,000 for the state board of health to improve the water supply here. Salt water supplied into the Arkansas river between this city and Colorado has affected seriously with its palatability and usefulness.

POINT PLEASANT. Kan., Sept. 25.—An unusual suit has been filed in the court of appeals for that case, the contention of which, if allowed, would set a precedent for farm labor. The plaintiff, F. J. Kyd, of the Western Hotel Hall, Jr., and the claim is for overtime for Kyd's son, a minor. It is alleged that the boy worked two and one-half hours overtime for $1.00, earning $2.20 more than was paid to him.

Missouri

SPRINGFIELD. Mo., Sept. 25.—All of floors were filled with the leading associations of the annual reunion of the Sixth Missouri cavalry held here. Next year's reunion of members of the regiment will be held in Springfield, it was decided.

ELDORADO SPRINGS. Mo., Sept. 25.—Rev. Fred W. Kinney, pastor of the First Methodist church at Springfield, Mo., was ousted from the Methodist ministry by the state conference, following a hearing during the sessions of the annual Methodist conference held here. He was charged with misappropriating funds belonging to a church.

SPRINGFIELD. Mo., Sept. 25.—Admission to the new building to be built for the record enrollment of Southwest Teachers college here, was announced by President W. H. Miller. The enrollment this year will total 1,200.

ATLORA. Mo., Sept. 25.—The will of the late C. W. Frowell, wealthy mine operator of this district, who died recently, has been made public. In his will he bequeathed $100,000 to his wife, Mrs. Frowell, at Atlora, Mo., where a $25,000 addition is to be erected within the next few years.

MONETTE. Mo., Sept. 25.—Wolves are becoming numerous in the Ozark mountains for that reason, the state, it is thought, that some means must be adopted for their extermination, according to farmers living near Branson.

CINCINNATI. Mo., Sept. 25.—Two buildings were located on the public square and for some time it was feared that other buildings would burn. The loss was covered by insurance.

WEIR CITY. Mo., Sept. 25.—The Prairie State Bank, which has been in existence since 1870, will be reopened Monday, October 1, according to directors of the company. The bank has been closed since April 1 at Weir City, Mo., where a $25,000 addition is to be erected within the next few years.

CARDEN. Mo., Sept. 25.—The little town, which was at one time a flourishing mining camp and afterward declined, seems to be coming back. Four mines are now being operated and there is every indication of profitable production. On the Conductor lease, which contains 468 acres, there are three shafts and many tons of ore have been taken out. The ore has been brought to the surface ready to be hauled as soon as the new custom mill is completed.

CARDEN. Mo., Sept. 25.—A narrow escape from death, George J. Jones, was the survivor of a fall from a mine car. Jones, a member of the Redskin mine, when the automobile in which he was riding was struck by a train, was thrown from the car and became unconscious. He was taken to a hospital in Picher where he died the following morning. Jones was survived by a wife, his parents, a brother and several other relatives.

PIPER. Mo., Sept. 25.—At the end of the second week the enrollment in the nine schools of District 15, which includes Carden, Douglass and the number of students at this time last year. At some of the schools the rooms are so crowded as to render half-day sessions necessary.

MURDOCK. Ark., Sept. 25.—Nancy Olsen, 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Olsen, was killed when she was thrown from the Cotton Plant bridge. She was thrown 15 feet. Her head struck the rock road. She only lived a few hours.

BERRYVILLE. Ark., Sept. 25.—The Berryville Canoeing company has put up another boat to be used in the festival. Most of the boats are stored in the warehouses and factories awaiting transportation facilities.

MOBODEN. Ark., Sept. 25.—Walter Campbell, farmer, was struck and killed when his team of mules ran away. He was riding on a load of hay when the bolt struck him. The hay was set on fire and the team, mules and load was drawn and the load knocked down by the bolt.

STUTTGART. Ark., Sept. 25.—The first annual festival to be held here, the mid-section of Park county took place Monday, 25 miles east of Mena when three sister cities, The Little Rock, Mena and Stuttgart, were visited. Most of the exhibits were stored in the warehouses and factories awaiting transportation facilities.

MEMPHIS. Ark., Sept. 25.—The first triple world's fair in the section of Park county took place Monday, 25 miles east of Mena when three sister cities, The Little Rock, Mena and Stuttgart, were visited. Most of the exhibits were stored in the warehouses and factories awaiting transportation facilities.

Victim Was in Wrong.

ARHOMONT. Sept. 25.—Felix Anderson, who died Saturday morning as a result of injuries received when he was struck by a speeding car on the Long Grove, last Friday night, will be buried at Wilson, Texas, Saturday evening. O. Wilson, his mother, who has been connected with a sister of the dead man at Dover, Del., there will be no prosecution in the case. The car was driven by a man who was an accident, since Anderson had his car parked on the wrong side of the road after the engine had stalled.

Stonner Worker Killed.

ARHOMONT. Sept. 25.—H. D. Burres, worker in the coal breaker under the Long Grove bridge, was killed Monday morning when he was caught between some machinery and a brick wall, striking his chest. He was found in a hospital but died soon after arriving there.

Laughs That Make You Live Longer

MUTT AND JEFF—MUTT AND JEFF—Look What Jeff's Quarter Invest

By BUD FISHER

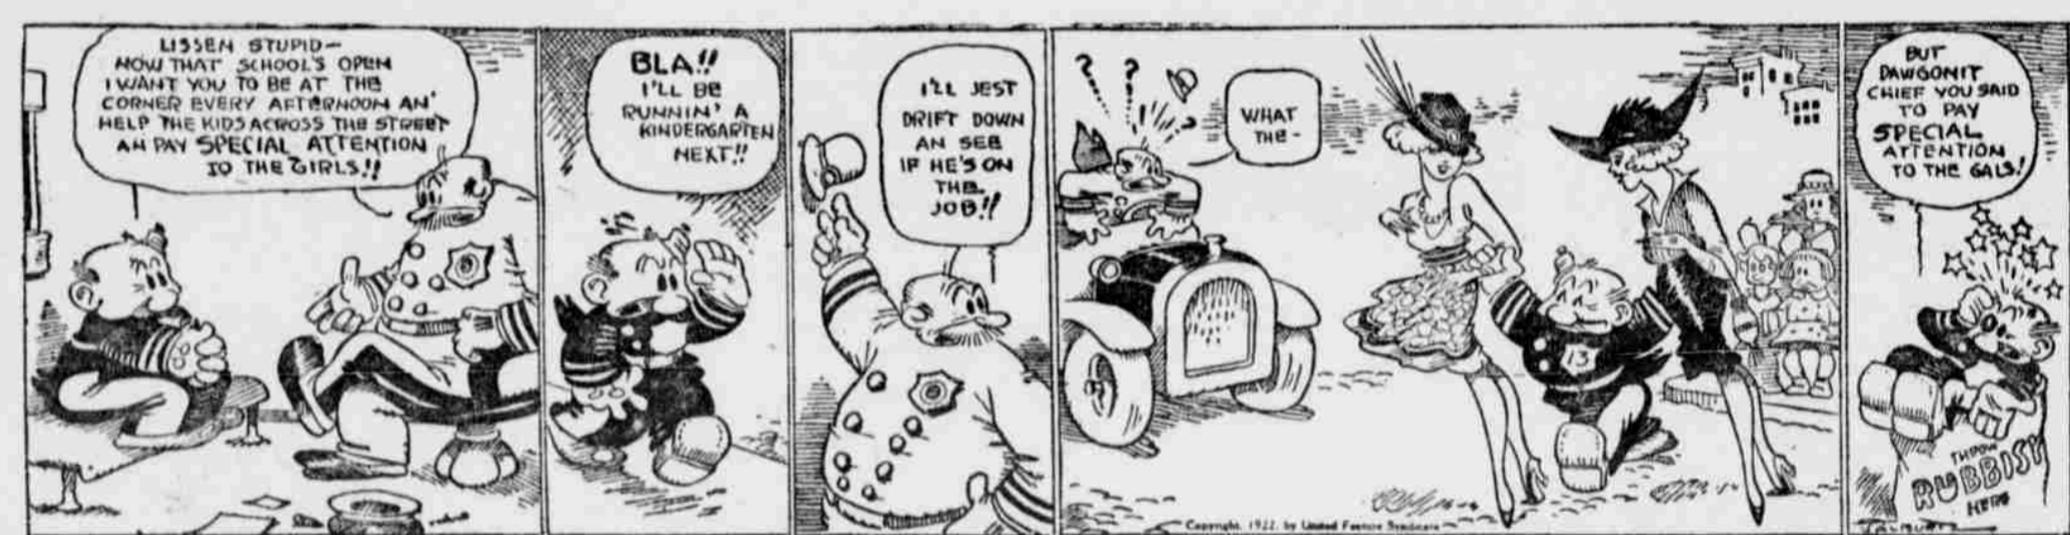

POLLY AND HER PALS—Just the Same, It Was a Life-Saver.

By CLIFF STERRETT

CASEY THE COP—Orders Is Orders!!

By H. M. TALBURTT

BARNEY GOOGLE—Barney Finds Himself Down and Out.

By BILLY DE BECK

THEM DAYS IS GONE FOREVER—“How'd You Like to Be the Iceman?”

By AL. POSEN

